

Frank Ferreri
Managing Partner
Ferreri Search

Frank is a third generation Tampa Bay resident and a graduate of the University of Florida. He is a graduate of both Leadership Tampa and Leadership Tampa Bay. He is also very active in the community and is committed to giving back. He serves on several boards, including Metropolitan Ministries, the Board of Fellows at The University of Tampa and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.

He is a CPA, starting his career with Ernst & Young and transitioned into the executive recruitment business and spent a number of years in senior management position with a national staffing company.

His biggest passion is his wife Susan and their two daughters. He enjoys rooting for the Gators and cooking on his Big Green Egg.